

British Society of Plant Breeders COVID-19 Business Continuity

As we manage the impacts of COVID-19 BSPB would like to reassure its members that we are continuing work to support them and provide guidance to farmers.

Staff members' and customers' health and wellbeing is our main priority therefore staff who wish to work from home are equipped to do so and meetings are being held online.

If you would like to reach us please use the normal contact details that you hold.

We hope that everyone stays safe and well.
